Walnut Creek Stake

25 Of 59 Grads 'Go Extra Mile'

By Hugh Zonfurst

"Early to bed, early to rise —" Finally paid off for these gals and guys.

Seminary graduation for Walnut Creek Stake, held at the Walnut Creek Ward chapel June 4, saw Stake President Kenneth D. Jensen present diplomas to 59 graduates, 25 of them fourth-year students. The exercises were held in the evening; so those who had begun their school days at 5:30 a.m. for so long looked surprisingly wide awake.

Walnut Creek Ward led the list in numbers with 19 graduates of whom ten had completed four years. Pleasant Hill's 1st and 2d Wards, combined, had 20 graduates, eight four-year students. Lafayette-Orinda had twelve and two, El Sobrante and Rodeo four of whom three had finished four years, and Danville four of whom two had "gone the extra mile."

A two-year certificate was awarded Cecelia Pearl Outman, converted after missing her first year, and a one-year certificate to Bonnie Jean Gubler who had lived in Alaska, out of reach of a Seminary class, until last year.

President Jensen, in his address to the graduates, paid tribute not only to them, but to their instructors who not only got up early in the morning, but had homework to do the night before, also to the parents who supported the young men and women in their work.

Now everybody can sleep in. Until September. And Institute.

Conference Hears 3 Church Leaders

Three leaders of The Church spoke at a quarterly conference of Walnut Creek Stake, Saturday and Sunday, June 26 and 27.

They are Frank H. Brown of the Missionary committee, Marvin J. Ashton and Jean A. Allen who represented the Young Men's and Young Women's Mutual Improvement Associations.

General sessions were held at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Sunday at the East Bay Inter-Stake Center, 4780 Lincoln Ave., Oakland, conducted by Stake President Kenneth D. Jensen, 3521 Melody Drive, Walnut Creek.

Elder Brown has served the Church as president of the East Central States Mission, stake president, bishop, stake mission president, and auxiliary worker. Before his call to the mission he operated a baking business in Wyoming.

Elder Ashton has served as an assistant in the General Superintendency of the YMMIA since 1958. He has been a leader in youth activities for many years. He is a University of Utah graduate and in the lumber business.

Mrs. Allen has taken an active role in auxiliary organization of the Church.

LDS Art Show With Education Week

Do you paint? Sculp? Do you long for an opportunity to show your work? Perhaps your chance has come.

An invitation has been broadcast to the seven stakes of the Oakland B.Y.U. Education week to all Latter-day Saint artists to display their work at the Interstake Art Exhibit.

Under direction of Mrs. Elaine Evans, noted painter and sculptor, the exhibit will be held July 29, 30 and 31 in the East Bay Interstake Center. It will run concurrently with the B.Y.U. Education Week and be viewed by the hundreds registered for this event.

Samoan Parley Held

By Leonard W. Cryer

First LDS conference of Samoans to be held in San Francisco attracted 100 men, women, and children from southern California to participate with their brethren and sisters of the north over the Memorial Day weekend, May 29 to 31. The conference, sponsored by the Samoan association of northern California, was held at the Polynesian Ward's meeting house in San Francisco and opened at 6:30 a.m. Saturday, May 29, with breakfast, after which the convention divided into two groups.

Half went to Oakland to participate in Temple sessions while the others engaged in volleyball, basketball, and softball competition between various men's and women's teams, interrupted by a break for sandwiches and punch.

The meeting reconvened at the Polynesian Ward's meeting house for a Samoan dinner and a special challenge performance of the Los Angeles and Polynesian Ward members' luau dancers, singers, and other performers. The San Francisco group, which had won the athletic competition by a slim margin, also had a slight edge over the Los Angeles group in colorful costumes and well rehearsed performers, due to their luau, May 22, only a week before.

Sunday, May 30, the convention met again at the Polynesian Ward, for regular Sunday meetings and a special afternoon Fast and Testimony meeting. The special meeting under the direction of San Francisco Stake President Irven Derrick was conducted by Polynesian Ward's Bishop William Feagaimaalii.

This first Samoan Polynesian Conference to be held in northern California was intended to lay the foundation for an All-Polynesian conference of the Hawaiian, Tongan, Maori, and Tahitian Church members, as the Samoans.

Book of Mormon An Aid To Testimony—McConkie

Elder Bruce R. McConkie told members of Hayward Stake last month that the Lord had given the Book of Mormon in these modern times as an aid in testifying to the truth of the Gospel to compensate for the mass spreading of sin and rebellion as is now possible. He says we haven't begun to understand its importance. He invited members to join in a Church-wide program of sending special Christmas cards and Books of Mormonfor Christmas gifts. By this means some people will become more mellow, better educated, and thus more receptive to hearing the Gospel.

Oakland 3d Ward

'Birthday' Crowd Taxes Interstake Hall

By Mary D. Westover

More than 450 members and former members of the old Dimond Ward, now Oakland 3d Ward, taxed the cultural hall of the Interstake Center May 29 for the 40th anniversary of the Dimond Branch. All the bishops who ever had served the ward were there, from Tom Robinson, Sunday School superintendent and president of the branch before the ward was organized, to Eugene S. Hilton, present bishop. All the presidents of Oakland-Berkeley Stake, to which the ward is affiliated, were there except W. Aird MacDonald, the first, whose commitments kept him in Salt Lake City.

Most popular spot was the exhibits, where old friends were sure to meet somewhere close. Bishop Phelps had gathered many mementos, including dedication programs for the old Dimond Chapel and that for the present chapel, a book with pictures of all the missionaries who have gone from the ward, many nostalgic snap shots and newspaper stories about past events in the word.

The dinner was delicious and Jim Revel was chief cook who says men can't cook? The MIA girls did the serving. During dinner Elmo Smith was master of ceremonies and presented some of the VIP's. Paul and Roselle Jenkel had been with us longest (since 1918), long before the ward was organized, and are still active members. The Phelps girls, who came from Salt Lake City, were probably the ones from the greatest distance.

During the dinner rhymed tributes for bishops in general and for the individual bishops who had served our ward, having been written by members of the ward, were read.

After dinner each of the bishops was introduced and a plaque was given to Tom Robinson by our present bishop, Eugene S. Hilton. A plaque had been prepared for Preident MacDonald, but since he could not be there, it was acceted in his name by Delbert F. Wright, now president of the Oakland Temple. Then a pseudo-telecast was given from Station KO3, in which skits recounted events in the life of the ward. These evoked roars of laughter, such as the time the Boy Scouts, having a camp fire song fest in Sacrament meeting, led off with "There is a Tavern in the Town," or the time Tom Booth lost his teeth overboard while taking the Scouts deep-sea fishing.

Bishop John J. Kest

Funeral services for John James Kest, 69, former bishop of Martinez Ward, former high councilman of Oakland-San Francisco Stake, and recently a member of Concord 2d Ward, were held last month in Oakland.

Bishop Kest, a native of Flushing, Holland, and the son of a sea captain, owned a large collection of maritime articles from the days of sailing ships, including many ship models he carved himself.

He was a past commodore of the Aolean Yacht Club of Alameda and was a commander in the U.S. Coast Guard Reserve.

A long-time resident of Oakland, he made his home in recent years at 1348 Coventry Road, Concord.

Surviving are his widow, Catharina, of Concord; one son, Robert of Costa Mesa; four daughters, Mrs. Nellemae Tanner of Castro Valley, Mrs. Norma Ericksson of Concord, Mrs. Marjorie Crooks of Nampa, Idaho; and Mrs. Naomi Card of Canada; seven grandsons and the nineteen granddaughters.

Born June 8, she will have lots of friends her age as other new babies in the last month or so include Heather Baird, Thomas Ashby, Eileen Johnson, Wendy Martin, Darrin Dent, Julie Blackwell, and Launa Marie Black. Congratulations all you new parents, babies are the sweetest kind of people.

Recent high school graduates include: Fremont High School — Sue Camerson, Susan Haag, Linda Hucksol, Cecil Mullins, Jeffrey Poore, Jackie Robertson, Jim Schuyler, Ilene Verhaaren, Marie Weir, and Miriam Wright. Miriam received a scholarship from the Foothill Women's Club which she plans to use at Brigham Young University. She also received a silver seal on her diploma for a 3.5 grade average. Janet Tait was graduated from Skyline High School and also plans to attend B.Y.U. as do Sue Camerron, Ilene Verhaaren and Jeff Poore.

Wayne Wood was graduated from Brigham Young University and will be teaching in Salt Lake City in the fall.

The Scouts under leadership of Bob Stein on June 11 cooked a pan dinner on the patio at the Church to serve their families. Merit badges were presented to Curtis Price, and David Hawkins received his First Class Scout award.

Barbara Branton was honored at a recent Cub Scout pack night for her service as a den mother for two years.

Explorers of the Ward were still on their survival trip as this is written and the Scouts were leaving for Lake Berryessa for a three-day fishing trip.

Congratulations to the Louis Schuylers and Wendell Martins on the forthcoming marriage of Sue Schuyler to Stephen Martin on September 8, in the Oakland Temple.

Save July 24 for our family picnic get-together at Redwood Regional Park, Orchard Maple Tables 4-17 are reserved for our Ward near the entrance at Redwood Gate. Party will begin at 10:30 a.m. to celebrate Pioneer Day.

Dr. Wilbur Russell Is August Organist

By Frances S. Beniams

August's artist on the Temple Hill concert series will be Dr. Wilbur Rusell of San Anselmo, who led the Marin Handbell Ringers at the Interstake Center last Christmas time. Dr. Russell will appear at 4 p.m., Sunday, August 1.

While we hope to hear the bell ringers again, this concert is to exploit Dr. Russell's great talents at the organ.

Trained at the Westminister Schol of Music, New York, he continued his post-doctorate study in San Francisco and at the Seminary in San Anselmo, Dr. Russell has given generously of his time and talents to the Marin, San Francisco, and East Bay communities. His group of Pro Musica Singers is now established and successful. His handbell ringers are the best in the West, his teaching is inspired, according to his students, and his recital work is careful and exciting. This concert will be the fourth he has played on the Interstake organ, which he says is the most rewarding instrument he has ever played.

Pleasant Hill Ward

Luau To Swell Building Fund

By Richard Harvey

July is luau time in the Pleasant Hill Wards. This year's luau is the second annual luau, and will be held at Diablo Valley College, Golf Club Road, Concord, at 6 p.m. July 17. Prompted by two Hawaiian families that moved into Pleasant Hill 2d Ward last year, Charles and Pauline Moikeha, Ben and Gloriann Pokipala, the two Pleasant Hill Wards put on the first luau last July.

The evening starts with an authentic Hawaiian welcome to food direct from the Islands, and a show that is continuous throughout the evening. The show is put on by native Polynesians who come from various sections of California specifically for this event. There will be social dancing from 8:30 p.m. to the music of "Poki and His Hawaiian Serenaders." This group of native Hawaiian musicians is well known in the area.

Ticket sales are limited by the size of the building to 600. The price is $6.00a person for the evening. Proceeds will go to the ward's building fund. Phone Sister Margie Berejkoff of Pleasant Hill Ward, 932-2516 or Sister Mary Kowalski Pleasant Hill 2d Ward, 935-3207, for tickets.

Mission Ward

Bishop Barber Suffers Relapse

Bishop CONRAD S. BARBER of Mission Ward, a victim of a serious illness during May and June.

We regret to report that, since the following was written, Bishop Conrad has had a relapse that required his return to the hospital for the remainder of June and perhaps longer.

By Leonard W. Cryer

Bishop Conrad S. Barber was so ill in May that he could not work at his occupation of jeweler nor perform his duties in the Church. He was forced to stay in bed under a doctor's care, and was not able to be up and out of the house until late in June.

Mission Ward was represented at the big campout special Aaronic Priesthood fathers' sons' outing, May 14 and 15, at Camp Royanah by 1st Counselor I. Y. Bigelow, Chris Shaini, John Fletcher, Donald and Fred Cox, and Mark and David Fraidenburg.

Gerald Stauffer and his wife became the parents of a baby boy May 17. This is their second child.

Two young Mission Ward men received diplomas at San Francisco Stake's Seminary graduation services, May 30. James Thomsen was the only man in the group to receive his fourth year diplomas. Leo (Mike) Yost was one of six who received third year diplomas. Kenneth and Martha Thomsen were especially proud of Jim's fourth year award, as their two oldest sons received it previously, and their two youngest sons are expected to follow through also to fourth year diplomas.

Linda Marie Wright, daughter of Orvel and Lucinda Wright, born April 26, was blessed at the fast and testimony meeting May 30.

Gary R. Jones, recent bridegroom, is the new superintendent of the ward Y.M.M.I.A., replacing Samuel Gardea, who moved out of the ward. Chris Shaini was released as age group counselor.

The ward Primary association presidency is now complete, with Emma Draper, wife of ward clerk Newell Draper, as 1st counselor, and Sharon Hubbard, wife of Eric R. Hubbard, 2d counselor. President of the Primary is Sonya Taylor.

Mrs. Ruth E. Sanford, recent convert is a worker in the ward Y.W.M.I.A. Mrs. Sanford has been active in the Girl Scout organization,

The Junior Sunday School has two new workers, Mrs. Sese Te'o, one of the few Polynesians in the ward, and Mrs. Sharon Hubbard, new 2d counselor in the primary.

Mrs. Ganel Miller is the new instructor of the Sunday School's Investigators' class. Her husband, Frank Miller, before his physical ailments, was the teacher of the course before his illness.

Mission Ward now has only two full-time missionaries in the field, Elder Melvin Barber in South America and Elder James Lambson in Central America. Elder cause of illness, and has been re- Larry Lollar, after a short time in Canada, had to return home beleased from his calling. He is living in Utah with an uncle and working there.

Bay Ward

Mildred Spencer

By Beryl Mills

In the quiet dignity she so fully exemplified in this life, Sister Mildred Spencer, beloved president of the Bay Ward Relief Society, was laid to rest Monday, June 7, a victim of cancer. She was 52 years old.

Memorial services were held in the Bay Ward Chapel under direction of Bishop P. J. Livingston. Prayers were given by close friends of the family, Elder David Neff and Bishop John W. Crofts. Four of Sister Spencer's favorite musical numbers were sung by the Stake Relief Society Singing Mothers. Speakers were Bishop Livingston, Sister Joanne Livingston who was a close associate in the Relief Society, and President D. Forrest Greene, former bishop in the Bay Ward. Sister Livingston includeded in her remarks a poem written by one of the Relief Society sisters, Ruth Makinson, entitled "Mildred."

Mildred Hunt Spencer was born in Thorton, Washington, April 29, 1913, the daughter of James LeRoy and Carrie Stone Hunt. She attended Washington State University, then moved to Washington, D.C. where she was employed by the Department of Agriculture. There she met David Spencer, and on May 15, 1935, they were married in Chevy Chase, Maryland. For the last 25 years they have lived in San Francisco.

Surviving are her husband David, one brother LeRoy Hunt of Portland, and an aunt Mrs. N. Rex Hunt.

Fast Meetings Hear From Missionaries

By Mary D. Westover

Letters from missionaries continue high light of our Fast Sunday meetings. Dave Shaw writes from New Zealand that their big news was the organization of the 405th Stake of the Church at Wellington, where LeGrand Richards officiated. Danny Parks finds that Tijuana, Baja California, is a long way from being the den of iniquity it is commonly pictured, finds some avid and devout members of the Church down there, and is baptising new ones all the time. The warmer weather seems to have smoothed the paths of the folks in Britain (we have nine missionaries there now). The Deckers are getting along nicely in Scotland and are looking forward to having Linda Morgan with them for two months this summer. She plans to tour in Europe. Barbara and she will return so that Barbara can have her senior year at Skyline High School next year. The Wheelers are doing well as are the Blisses. Jerry Hilton and Bob Baker are both well and glad of it. Bud Stone will be home from Argentina before long. All our missionaries in the United States report enthusiastic progress.

Fred Weindorf recently returned from Ireland and gave his missionary report. We were all impressed by his obvious love for the Irish People.

Steven Mahoney was selected as one of three boys from the Bay Area to attend the Explorer Scouts Regional Conference at Orange, California, June 18-20.

Our ward is growing,by both conversions and new folks moving in, and babies. Six baptised last Fast Sunday included David Martin Christensen, son of James and Virginia Christensen; Eric Michael Fleck, son of David and Kathyn Kollenbaum Flek; Larry Keith MacDonald, son of Larry and Jo-Ellen MacDonald; Julie Eilene Close, daughter of Earl and Karen Waters Close, and the children of the Warner Tuttles, Warner Eugene and David Spencer Tuttle.

Many families in the ward had someone graduate from school this June. Betty Christensen Gibson, daughter of the Newell Christensens, graduated from the "Y," as did Nita Hilton Farrell, daughter of our Bishop, and Larry Dee Smith and Doug Swanson, both of whom grew up in the ward. There are many high school graduates. Nancy Nicholson graduated from Hayward State College. Graduation from Seminary was of interest because three of our members gor four-year certificates and four got three-year certificates, President Stone and William Carlston, area coordinator for Seminary, presented the certificates.

While many of our young people are home from college several are attending summer quarter. Jack and Penny Fitzpatrcik have left for Provo to matriculate at the "Y."

Lynn Johnson spent his recent furlough from the Marine base at Camp Pendleton with us. Wally is now with the air force and Allen Shurtleff is leaving for active duty with the armed forces.

We are going to miss President and Sister Allen when they return to Salt Lake City, on completion of his tour of duty with the Northern California Mission. However, we are looking forward to meeting his successor, Lyle R. Petersen from Rigby, Idaho.

Pacesetter Boards are located in selected Montgomery Ward stores, serve as liason between high school students and Wards', assist "Wendy Ward", and model in fashion shows.

In the fall, Artha will enter Laney College for a year, then transfer to Brigham Young University where she plans to complete her college education, majoring in fashion drawing. She intends to make a career of modeling. Her hobbies include music, art, and modeling.

While the visitors were here they spent a day in Santa Cruz, a day in San Francisco, attended a dinner and two different dances at the Church, and their regular Church meetings on Sunday (They were responsible for presenting the Sacrament meeting.), in addition to a special testimony meeting. Thirty ward families helped house and feed the group.

Our 40 young people and seved adults arrived at their ward chapel in time for a 5 a.m. breakfast on Friday, June18, then were shuffled to the 7:30 reception line in Salt Lake where they met some General Authorities and MIA General Board members. They attended the morning session of onference and spent the afternoon at BYU. On Saturday, they visited the Church's underground vault record storage chamber in Little Cottonwood Canyon, and later in the day ent to Lagoon amusement park for fun and swimming. One evening they attended the All- Church Dance Festival. On Sunday they attended the regular Church meetings, being, in turn, responsible for the Sacrament meeting program.

'Family Night' Held Far From Home

By Marjorie Simard

The Osmond Brothers, new stars in the entertainment world, are an example of devoted Latter-day Saints who love the Church and do a missionary work by example wherever they go. During their recent appearance at the Venetion Room of the Fairmont Hotel, San Francisco, they took time out for a family reunion at the home of their cousins, the Blaine Wilson family, in Hayward. They granted a Messenger reporter an interview and proved warm, charming, and unspoiled. The five boys now in show business are Alan, 15, Wayne, 13, Merrill, 11, Jay, 9, and Donny, 7.

They travel with their manager-father George Osmond on all their trips. For this engagement their vivacious brown-eyed mother Olive was along. She usually stays at home in Ogden to look after the other four children. Later this summer two older brothers will join the act. All the boys dance, play the saxaphone and sing in barbershop harmony. They have one sister, four, and a small brother, two. Mother Olive is theology teacher in Relief Society when she is at home, and does proselyting when she travels.

They love Family Nights, have held them for years and still hold them whenever they are together. It was during their family nights six years ago that they discovered the boys' talents. They held a regular family night at the Wilsons', also accomplished singers, and were a very appreciative audience for each others' singing. Other family members who joined the reunion were Ruth Wilson's parents, George and LaVon Osmond, Hayward 2d Ward, and Wallace and Lenee Wimmer, San Lorenzo. The two George Osmonds and Lenee Wimmer are all first cousins. Becky, Melody, Jennifer and Tim Wilson, all musicians in the making, were there, too.

The Osmond family is now vacationing in their new summer home at Huntsville, Utah, near the home of President McKay. After a short rest they will take up their busy schedule of performances again, beginning with an appearance in Disneyland. Walt Disney sent his own plane to Utah to get them. They were one of the quartets featured three years ago in Disneyland. On June 7 they will again appear on the Andy Williams TV show. Later on they have an engagement in the East and will then fly to Sweden, where they are already popular recording stars.

How do they keep up this busy life without spoiling five nice boys? Their father says the Church influence gives them real goals, they stay very close as a family, and the boys are not given money, except for their needs. They are all very alert, keenly interested in their various hobbies, and getting an excellent education from their private tutor who travels everywhere with them.

IT'S ALWAYS NEWS UNTIL IT'S BEEN PRINTED IN THE MESSENGER OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA. Today you may be reading last month's news. As you may have noticed, last month's paper was eight pages. We had more than enough copy and advertising for eight, but not enough for twelve. So several columns had to be left out. Trouble is, metal type can't be squeezed. But can be saved from one time to the next.

Teachers Leaving On Summer Trips

By Mel Venturi

With school out for the summer, many Hayward 2d Ward teachers — those who are not teaching in summer schol or taking sumer jobs — are going on vacations or back to college in other states to continue their educations.

Brother and Sister Bill Anderson and their family are planning an extensive vacation and won't return until about Sept. 10. They will first go to Utah to visit relatives, then will make a tour of American history and Church history points of interest. They also plan to visit Bill's mission field, the Southern States Mission, mainly Georgia and Florida. From there they will visit family in New York City, see the World's Fair, and will also atend the Hill Comorah Pageant.

Brother and Sister Glen Buckner and family are gone for the summer also. Glen is attending the Universit of Georgia at Athens, on a scholarship. They will return in the fall.

Viola Goodwin and her children have left for Germany to be with Jerry, ho has been working there for several months. They plan to come back in the fall.

The Mutual Marreids had a "fun" party last month, a sport evening, with volleyball, ping pong, and table games for those who don't like to be too active. There was a pot luck buffet dinner. Those is charge were the McAllisters, McGrath's and Hunters (Boyd).

Mutual Marrieds fireside was held this month at the home of Darrell and Irene Steinecke. We are studying the "Articles of Faith' 'and the lesson was given by Darrel. Irene served banana bread and punch.

Phil Carter and Violet are leaving the ward to go to Logan, Utah, for the summer to attend schol. He will teach there next semester.

The ward dinner this month was sponsored by the Seventies. Profits from his dinner are o go to the welfare fund and budget fund. We had a good turn out and everyone enjoyed the food.

Relief Society is now on its sumners' summer conference Friday a bake sale at the Centerville Chapel, following priesthool meeting. They also had a rummage sale recently, and they made $99 for their Relief Society Fund.

Tonga Native Aids May Luau Success

LOUISA OTUAFS, one of the few Tongan members in the Polynesian Ward, is an example of the young people of the ward who helped make the fund-raising luau a success May 22. A member of the Tongan group, made up entirely of natives of Tonga, she performed with the Maori and Tahitian groups also. Like many who performed in two or more groups, she was busy rehearsing three nights a week or more during April and May.

By Leonard W. Cryer
(For Lucy L. Matsu)

Several non-members participated in the luau, especially in the Hawaiian and Tahitian groups. Mrs. Harriet Spalding, director of the Hawaiian group, is to be congratulated on the performances of her non-member girls.

Wilhelmina, Irene and Carlotta Velles, performers in two or more groups, missed their father William Velles, who was in St. Luke's Hospital under traction for his bad back. Their mother Josephine. ward Primary president, also missed many rehearsals because of her visits to the hospital. William and Josephine Velles have four boys and four girls.

June 12 is the date that Normalynn K. Nawahine and Ima T. Te'o, ward members, will be married in the Temple. Norma is the daughter of Henry and Thelma Nawahine. Ima, a Seventy, is a former stake missionary. They both had much to do with the success of the recent luau, especially the performance of the Maori group. Their marriage will unite two of the largest and most active families in the ward. Both have been active in ward auxilliaries, especially the MIA and Sunday School.

Jerry Alip, president of the 8th Quorum of Elders, in charge of the ward's softball activities, has signed up 30 members. He expects the ward will have at least two or three teams in the Stake's softball league.

The ward's Mother's Day programs in both Sunday School and Sacrament meetings were well attended. Flowers dominated the chapel, with five large vases full, and carnations were given to all the many mothers present.

Mrs. Lucy Matsu, wife of 1st Counselor William Matsu, was able to come to the Sunday School services with her husband, two sons, and two daughters. She is recovering from surgery. Her oldest daughter, Lani, is one of the most active girls in the MIA, and performed in three of the groups in the May 22 luau.

Spain Missionary May See Sisters

Travels of Becky and Nancy Winkel of Fremont may cross the path of their brother Richard in Madrid, Spain, in July as they arrive there for six weeks of study at the University of Madrid and Richard leaves there for France. These world-traveling young people are the children of President and Mrs. Winkel of Hayward Stake. Richard recently returned from a mission in Chile and wishing to study further in the Spanish language went to Madrid and enrolled at the University there. Part of his study included an intensive course in French, so his next adventure is to travel to France, work during the summer for his board and room on Church buildings there and practice his French in this "laboratory".

Becky and Nancy are traveling as a part of a well-supervised well - chaperoned international school program. They have developed a keen interest from their brothers in learning the Spanish language (Mac is now serving a mission in Argentina) and will continue in Spain the studies begun at Mission High in Fremont. Becky has other interests at Mission High, as well, since she has been chosen head cheer leader for the coming year.

President and Mrs. Sterling Nicolayson of the Andes Mission became parents of a new son in April. This makes two children born to the Nicolaysons since they have been in Peru, and makes five altogether.

Friends of Dennis Moffat and Karen Anderson, who will be married in the Los Angeles Temple June 18, are invited to attend an open house to be held in their honor June 26 from 7 to 10 in the evening at the home of the Victor Simards, 24439 2d St., Hayward.

The young couple will live in Hayward for the summer attending school while Dennis works for Hunt's Cannery, and will return to Provo in the fall to continue their studies at BYU.

Livermore Ward

Chapel Furnishings Nearly Completed

By Marlene Rose

After meeting in our chapel for one year, we are in the midst of completing the furnishings now. Carpeting is down, pews are in, and the new organ and piano are installed. We're now waiting for draperies in the chapel and for the stage draperies and the cyclorama for that area. A podium has been built for the Junior Sunday School room and that area is carpeted also.

We were sorry to lose our longtime ward clerk when Bob Allen left this month for his new home in Boston, Mass. Bob takes with him his daughter Elizabeth and good wishes of all of us. New ward clerk is Wayne Graham and Bill Silver is his assistant.

The Relief Society lost a longtime worker in Sister Eileen Ruff, who is moving with her family to Pleasant Hill. Newly sustained to assume her duties as secretary is Jean Du Val. The sisters of the Relief Society will meet for their closing social Tuesday, June 1, when they will enjoy luncheon and a book review together. Sister Phyllis Paul will review the book, "He Walked the Americas." Plans for summer Relief Society include a lesson under the direction of the social science instructor to be held in conjunction with workday held the second Tuesday of every month.

Dancing in the recent District Dance Festival at Stockton were ten members of the Livermore M.I.A. As usual, this event was a tremendous success, enjoyed by members and non-members alike. MIA members looking forward to graduation from Livermore and Granada High Schools this month are Marilyn Call, Ken Ranney, Wayne Black and Austin Custodia, a non-member who serves as MIA chorister.

In line for congratulations are many proud new parents in Livermore. Our ward has experienced a "population explosion" this spring. Babies blessed in April and May were Janice Call, daughter of Roy and Arlene Call; Robert Charles Smith, son of Charles and Karen Smith; Reese Howard Davis, son of John and LouAnn Davis; Bryan Alden Mortensen, son of Keith and Ione Mortensen; Scot Theras Bean, son of Vern and Carol Bean; Loren James Lee, son of Don and Connie Lee; Kevin Lee Weaver, son of Jerry and Carol Weaver; Laurel Lynn Liebes, daughter of Don and Dianne Liebes; Mary Sharon Zeuge, daughter of Herman and Francis Zeuge; and Vickie Kay Peterson, daughter of Paul and Arline Peterson. The lone confirmation during this period was Craig Emery Willes, son of Emery and Marlene Willes.

After Brother John Totten was called from our ward to serve on the Hayward Stake Sunday School board, Brother James Campbell was called to take his place as Sunday School superintendent. William Day serves as his 1st counselor, and Brother Donald Stowell continues as 2d counselor.

New Primary graduates are David Lovell, Kenneth Black and Larry Elliott. Congratulations to these young men. We wish them happy days in their new Scouting status. Sister Wynn Facer is now serving as chorister in the senior Primary. We're proud of Sister Rhea Black, recently presented her Servict Award for 5 years of service in the Primary organization. Rhea presently serves as Lihonma Partner.

June 'Bug' Bites Three Young Couples

By Mary D. Westover

June is rushing the season in 3d Ward this year. The engagements have been announced among our young people. Ken Matheson, recently returned from an Eastern States Mission, is to marry Marlene Hardston, a girl he met at BYU, in the Salt Lake Temple in late summer or early fall. Bill Barber, also a recently returned missionary, will marry Bonnie Ahlstrom, daughter of Bill and Joyce Osborne, in the Oakland Temple during the fall, and Emily Barber will marry Thomas C. Brown of Salt Lake City, in the Salt Lake Temple in the early fall.

A large number of our young people participated in the Dance Festival in Stockton May 8. It was moving, as well as entertaining, to see 3,500 almost professionally-trained young folks put on an affair of such beauty and excellence. Sure it takes work—lots of it, on the part of many people—but it becomes one of those memories you take out and dust off on gray days—and we need more of those for happy, worth-while lives.

President Allen is back on the job after his recent illness. There are advantages to being the home ward of the Oakland Temple and the Northern California Mission Home—and President Allen is one of those from whom we gain much by inspiration and example.

Sherrill Shurtleff and Eugene Earl were recently ordained High Priests.

Many friends of Ed Humphreys, member of 3d Ward for many years, will be sorry to hear of his recent death in Caldwell, Idaho. He had been ill with cancer.

Our last quarterly conference stressed re-dedication. Sister Gwen Ward of the General Primary Board brought out the necessity of each of us becoming a link in the chain of eternal lift by not only revering and living up to the teachings of our parents, but by helping our children find that the best approach to fulfillment is through living up to the highest ideals we can teach them, especially by our own examples. Special music was given by a combined chorus of Primary children from all the wards. Berkeley L. Bunker from the Welfare Board was also here with us and reminded us of the importance of the law of fasting, not only to welfare work, but to our own growth and fulfillment.

'Butch' Dahle Home From Andes Mission

Elder Roy N. "Butch" Dahle arrived home May 10 from his missionary labors in Peru, after a delay in Mexico City and a hectic wait by parents Roy and Mary Dahle and other members of the family at San Francisco Airport. Elder Dahle served for 2½ years in the Andes mission, under direction of President Sterling Nicolayson, formerly of the Hayward Stake presidency.

A homecoming program was held in Hayward Ward May 23 in honor of Elder Dahle, who reported on his missionary labors. He has been called on to speak at numerous firesides since his return.

Two Berkeleyans Win High Honors

Scholastic honors have come to two members of a Berkeley 2d Ward family, children of A. Warren and Vaunee Larson.

Son David, 24 was graduated with honors in physics from the University of California, Berkeley. While completing his mission in Germany he was 2d counselor to the mission president. A graduate of El Cerrito High School in June, 1958, David attended Cal before going on his mission. He won a fellowship at Columbia University to do graduate work in astronomy and physics. He served the last two years as superintendent of the Sunday School at University Ward, Berkeley.

Daughter Lora Beth, 21, was graduated from Iowa State University with honors in home economics. As a junior she received the Danforth award for the state of Iowa, an honor given to one girl annually in each of the land grant states. She went to St. Louis for two weeks as the guest of the Ralston Purina Co., then for another two weeks at a summer camp for leaders on Lake Michigan. She has a teaching assistantship in home economics at Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y., for 1965-66. Also an El Cerrito High School graduate, class of '61, she has been active in dramatics, the home economics association at her university, and in the YWMIA. She is a life member of the California Scholastic Federation.

An older brother Neil, also a UC graduate, is in business in the East Bay. A sister Vaunee Ann is in eighth grade at Portola Junior High School, El Cerrito, and another sister Mary Lou is in sixth grade at Kensington elementary school. The parents planned to fly back to Ames for Lora Beth's graduation. Brother Larson is a science teacher at Roosevelt Junior High School, Richmond, and a summer naturalist for the State park service. Sister Larson teaches secretarial science subjects at Richmond Union High School.

University Ward

May Busy, As Well As Merry At U.C.

By Gwyn A. Probst

"Busy" is the word for University Ward activities during May. Most organizations were hard at work bringing activities of the school year to a successful conclusion.

Under chairmanship of Patricia Lee the ward enjoyed a Hawaiian Luau at the annual spring picnic at Tilden Park May 22. After an afternoon of softball, volleyball, football throwing and kicking contests, 80 hungry people devoured two legs of roast pork plus all the trimmings. Later in the evening ward members reassembled at the Institute for dessert, a program and dancing.

The Relief Society closing social boasted an unusual theme—a treasure hunt breakfast. After combing the Berkeley Rose Garden and Cordonices Park the sisters were able to assemble enough clues to track down their breakfast May 15. Betty Jo Cannel directed this event.

The ward Relief Society also rendered valuable service to the stake by providing a special program at the Stake Relief Society leadership meeting May 21. The program included a hat modeling show, a reading, a piano solo, and a vocal trio.

A chicken picnic at Live Oak Park and "Ham and Legs" (a satiracal musical revue) were the special entrees on the M.I.A. menu for May. Pat Knaus directed activities at the picnic, and Ann Canaan the successful musical revue.

Plans are underway for a summer of M.I.A. activity; June 15 will see a big opening social at the Institute for the summer season. A cast for the ward's road show will be selected.

Live Oak Park served as the setting May 29 for the final pot luck party for the Young Marrieds. Two other newsworthy events in the ward during the month were Sunday School and ward choir activities. On Mothers Day the Sunday School lived up to its tradition by providing each mother a orchid corsage! (The flowers came by courtesy of Bishop Jensen who grows them and shares them each year with the ward.) Under the able baton of Bill Owens the ward choir accepted two invitations to sing at sacrament meetings of other wahds during the month. The first was at the mission farewell for Lynn Pennock at Oakland 3d Ward, the second at Berkeley 2d Ward.

For many of the active ward members, Dead Week and Finals came as a welcome change of pace.
